Quarterly public filings under U.S. SEC Regulation 13 show that as at March 31st, 2020, no person owns or controls ten per cent (10%) or more of the issued stock of S&P Global Inc., the NYSE listed public company which indirectly wholly owns and/or controls S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited.

¹ While S&P Global Inc. is able to identify the beneficial owners of its outstanding common stock, it may not know the identity of the underlying owner of the shares.

² This presentation includes the Percent of Common Stock owned. For the quarters ending in March, June and September, the percent identified is not part of the beneficial owners' SEC filing and has been calculated by S&P Global Inc. based on public information. The Percent of Common Stock is calculated by dividing the Number of Shares Owned (^{3,4}) by the number of common shares outstanding (240.9 million) as reported in S&P Global's 10-Q filed on April 28, 2020 with the U.S. SEC. For the quarter ending in December, the percent is part of the beneficial owners' SEC filing and is shown as reported.
